

The Economic Times

Title : SCROLL OF HONOUR

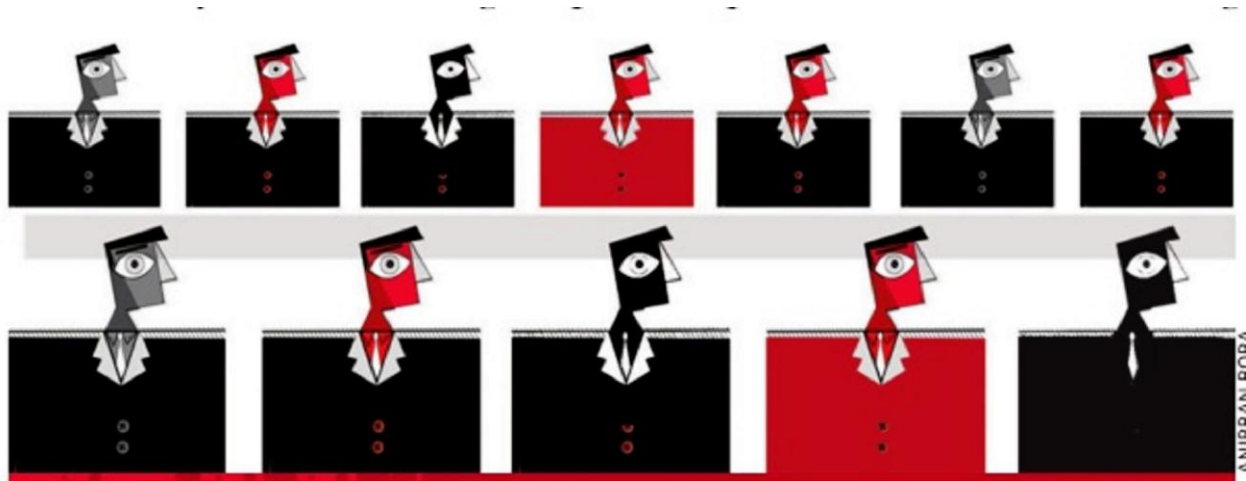

Author :

Location :

Article Date : 08/09/2016

ET YOUNG LEADERS 2016 PICKING THE BEST

The contestants of ET Young Leaders had to go through a grueling selection process. The most difficult part, perhaps, was the one where they had to answer questions put forward by CEOs looking to spot the qualities that would make great leaders

14 Dapinder Singh Narula
Manager - HR, Larsen and Toubro

Mr. Dapinder Singh (HR Batch 2011-13) on winning the highly esteemed 'The Economic Times Young Leaders' Initiative, a platform for recognizing and rewarding India's most promising young managers in the age group of 26 - 32. The competition saw about 20,000 corporate executives battling it out for the coveted title out of which only 50 made it to the final list. The competition is a combination of assessment tools, online as well as on-ground, and culminates in face-to-face interviews with leaders from the corporate world including the final round with MD & CEO of HUL, Mr. Sanjiv Mehta.

